Sports Dept.,

In Baltimore there is a Jew, PhD, successful businss, wife former amateur ball player from a wealthy philanthropic family, who has fond recollections of the old black professional teams.

The Baltimore Jewish Times, which is senting me freebees, was an article that interested me and may interest you - his organization of black kds into teams.

I'll be sending it, some articles from th e Jerusalem Post on what I did not see in the Wash Post and the Times may not have carried and an article you may enjoy reading and may decide to keep.

Best,

H

That weekly paper in the form of a rather large magazine surprises me. It is about tabloid size, slick cover, about 150 pages and an astounding number and variety of ads aimed at Jews largely by Jewish businesses.
